Mrs Regina Leung, Wife of the Chief Executive of HKSAR, the Official Guest at the Opening Ceremony was interested in Marcus' pencil holder.

Marcus painted this for the Butterfly Wall – a two firing project. He painted the butterfly with cotton bud and Cinnamon luster, a method we learnt from Doris Ackilli in her demo at the Orlando Convention. He decorated the white space of the butterfly box with enamel dots and painted Mother of Pearl outside the butterfly box. After firing he outlined the butterfly in black. For the background, he painted a thin layer of Meissen red on top of the MOP and created the disperse effect by spraying alcohol on it.

He painted animals for the Bible Art Tables

He painted his toys

In Oct 2012 Marcus joined IPAT Asia Chapters' pilot youth porcelain painting program in government primary school completing the course by exhibiting the above porcelain artworks in the Porcelain Dream Exhibition I at the Hong Kong Central Library in Feb 2013.

In 2014 he added these swimming tortoise plate and fish vase to his sea world series

He also painted a red series
